What is the food like here? Are there vegetarian/vegan options?

On Saturdays (only during the high season - not in May, July or October trainings) in Old Town we have a Farmers Market with many healthy options for food,shampoos, soaps and gifts. In addition, Organic Select (www.organic-select.com)will deliver your order to the yoga studio on Thursdays - you have to have your order in to Anna by Mondays at 12 noon.

There are more and more Organic stores popping up daily. We also have a Costco and Sam's Club that offer many organic options so if you have cards for those stores they are honored here.

Just a few steps away is a mom and pop style restaurant with only 4 tables that makes us juice or coconut water daily. They also very economical meals and snacks. They are flexible and can make almost whatever you want.

Only 2 blocks away is a davannayoga favorite - Vegetarian Planet restaurant with a daily buffet of vegan and vegetarian delights - lunch is ready when you arrive and the cost is only 105 pesos.

There are Tienditas - "little stores" 1 block away with fresh fruit, nuts, breads, beans, vegies and fresh tortillas daily. They have many more things as well.

Often students who liver nearby don't need to go to a big market as they can find what they need at the tiendita.

There are numerous juice stands, fruit stands and sandwich shops very nearby as well as a Starbucks only 5 minutes away by foot if you need a coffee or tea and some nice air-conditioning.

Basically davannayoga is in the center of it all. You will be able to find what you need very nearby.
